JUVENILE LAW 2008: EYES ON THE CHILD focuses on the needs of children and adolescents in the juvenile dependency system. Special guest speakers are Dr. Orin Bolstad, one of Oregon's most highly respected experts on adolescent thought and behavior; Kathryn Harrison, former chair of the Confederated Tribes of the Grand Ronde Tribal Council, introduced by Professor and former Congresswoman Elizabeth Furse; and Jody Marksamer, a staff attorney for the National Center for Lesbian Rights, who will explore what can be done to better address issues facing lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender children in delinquency and dependency systems. This seminar will also look at the needs of children as they age out of care and the obligations of attorneys for children who become aware of potential tort claims against DHS or its agents. Get updates on new legislation affecting dependency cases and case law developments, and conclude the day by learning about the life experiences of a group of foster children.

Please join the Juvenile Law Section for a no-host social hour immediately following the conclusion of the seminar. This is a great opportunity to meet and talk with seminar presenters and other participants.

Juvenile Law Section members save $20 off registration rates.
