If you are new to the practice of law in Oregon or are planning to become a member of the Oregon State Bar through admission on motion (reciprocal admission), here is a program geared specifically for you. Learn what makes Oregon unique besides rain and recycling. This information-packed seminar will cover how pleadings and parties work in Oregon, document discovery in the Beaver State, and Oregon's unique rules for depositions. You will also receive an overview of the Oregon court system and take a look at practicing in the U.S. District Court for the District of Oregon. Finally, staff from the bar's Client Assistance Office and Discipline Counsel's Office will explain the discipline process—how it works and how to avoid it.

Please note: The presentations in this seminar qualify as mandatory subjects as required for admission on motion (reciprocal admission). Attorneys attending this seminar to satisfy the requirement must complete and submit an admissions application to the Oregon State Bar before obtaining any CLE credit. Questions regarding this requirement may be directed to the OSB Admissions Department at (503) 431-6316.
